Hong Kong, Asia's Cruise Hub

In 2017, Hong Kong received 245 ship calls, a 28 percent increase from 2016. "Hong Kong remains Asia's premier cruise destination and homeport, as we welcomed several new builds last year," said Anthony Lau, HKTB's executive director. "We had the honor of being the homeport for the official christening of Dream Cruise's newest 3,500-guest capacity luxury vessel..."
